Cadiz, March 16. N. S.

THE Commerce have reſolved, that the Flota bound to New-Spain ſhall ſail about Midſummer next, of which, publick Notice has been given here in the uſual manner, that the Merchants may get ready the Effects they deſign to ſend thither againſt that time. Two Men of War and a Petache bound for Carthagena, are now in this Port ready to ſail with the firſt fair Wind. On the 8th Inſtant came in here the Mary Galley, William Joffreys Maſter, from Ireland; as did likewiſe on the 13th, the Golden-Lion, Andrew Cander Maſter, and a Ketch, Thomas Merriman Commander. The Portugal Merchant, Captain Thomas Say Commander, ſailed the 2d Inſtant for London. On the 9th ſailed the Spaniſh Merchant, Bernard Ludman Maſter, for London; the Mary, Edw. Mathews Maſter, for Amſterdam; the George Sloop, Warner Knap Maſter, for Corke; and the Elizabeth, John Marſhall Maſter, for Barnſtaple: And on the 13th, the Canham Galley, John Weſt Maſter, for Briſtol; and the Golden Lion, James Kendall Maſter, for Scotland.

Madrid, March 26. The Count de Monaſterol, who lately came hither with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, to notifie the Death of the Electoral Prince, has had Audience of their Catholick Majeſties. The King has appointed Don Berlipi to go to Vienna as his Envoy Extraordinary, to Compliment the King and Queen of the Romans upon their Marriage. The Council have been extraordinarily aſſembled, to conſider of a Letter which the King received ſome days ago from the Emperor of Morocco, who therein expreſſes a Readineſs to enter upon a Treaty of Peace, and deſires that ſome fit Perſon may be appointed by this Court to Negociate the ſame. The Conde d'Adanero, Preſident of the Council for the Affairs of the Indies, is lately dead; and it's thought, the King will give that Office to the Conde d'Aguilar, which in the mean time is Executed by the Marquis del Carpio. We have Advice from Cadiz of the 17th Inſtant, that Don Pimiento, whom the King has made Governor of Carthagena, ſailed from thence that day with two Men of War and a Petache, which carry a Supply of Men and Ammunition for that Garriſon. Our Letters from Ceuta ſay, the Moors continue before that Place, but ſeem to grow weary of the Siege, and are much leſs vigorous in their Attacks than formerly; The Beſieged have received a Reinforcement of 260 Men, and a freſh Supply of Proviſions, and are making a new Ditch, and ſome other Works round the Place.

Rome, March 28. The Queen Dowager of Poland arrived here laſt Tueſday incognito, and is lodged in the Palace of Don Livio Odeſchalci. The Pope being made acquainted with her arrival by the Baron Scarlati, Reſident from the Elector of Bavaria, ordered Signior Aquaviva, his Chamberlain, to go immediately and Compliment her in his Name, and ſent her a Preſent of Refreſhments. On Thurſday the Queen made a private Viſit to the Pope; She was received as ſhe came out of her Coach by ſeveral of the Pope's Officers, and conducted into the Room, where the Pope was ſeated on a Throne under a Canopy. The Queen kiſſed his Feet, and then was placed at his right hand on a Velvet Chair embroider'd with Gold, being treated in the ſame manner as Queen Chriſtina of Sweden was by Pope Alexander VII. The Differences between the Emperor and this Court about the Imperial Fiefs in the Eccleſiaſtical State, are in a very fair way of being accommodated through the Mediation of the King of Spain; And it's ſaid, Count Martinitz, Ambaſſador from the Emperor, will ſhortly be again admitted to have Audience of the Pope. Cardinal Morigia is arrived here from Florence, and has received his Cap from the Pope. It's believed, there will ſhortly be another Promotion of Cardinals, and that Signior Archinto, at preſent the Pope's Nuncio at Madrid, will be advanced to that Dignity.

Venice, April 3. Signior Grimani, whom the Senate have appointed to be their Commiſſioner for ſettling the Limits between the Venetian and Turkiſh Territories, went from hence laſt Tueſday for Dalmatia, where he is to meet the Turkiſh Commiſſioners, and to confer with them for this purpoſe. Directions are given for Disbanding ſome of the Venetian Forces in the Levant, and the reſt will be put into the Frontier Places, where the Senate intend to keep very ſtrong Garriſons, as alſo in the Iſlands of Zant, Cefalonia, and Corfu. It's ſaid, this State will have a Fleet of 12 Men of War, 2 Galeaſſes, and 26 Gallies, conſtantly at Sea to guard our Coaſts, and ſecure our Trade. Count Francis Pelicoli of Bergamo offers to give 100000 Ducats to be made a Nobleman of Venice, which it's thought will be accepted. The Duke of Mantua, who has continued ſome time in this City, is returned home. The Margaret arrived here laſt week from Scotland, and the Mazarine Galley from Ireland. This week came in here the Unity, with Herrings from Ireland.

Vienna, April 4. The Dutcheſs-Dowager of Hanover is on her departure for Modena, and the Ba-

Baron of Gerſtorf is appointed to conduct her to the Frontiers of that Principality. The Meeting of the General Diet of the Kingdom of Hungary at Presburgh, is put off till next June. The Emperor has made Count Martinitz, who now reſides as his Ambaſſador at the Court of Rome, Captain of his Guard of Archers. The Biſhop of Paſſau, who ſucceeds Prince Lobkowitz as the Emperor's Chief Commiſſioner at the Imperial Diet, is gone from hence to Ratisbonne.

Cologne, April 3. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Biſhop of Olmutz and Osnabrug, arrived here laſt Tueſday from Nancy, having in his way made a Viſit to the Elector of Triers at Coblentz, and to the Elector of Cologne at Bonne; He was Complimented at his Arrival here by our Magiſtrates, who made him the uſual Preſent of Wine, and after having ſeen the Curioſities of this City, he went on yeſterday for Duſſeldorp to viſit the Elector Palatine, and intends from thence to continue his Journey to Osnabrug.

Hague, April 17. Monſieur d'Opdam, Envoy from this State to the Elector of Brandenburgh, has taken his Leave of the States-General, and will depart in few days for Berlin. Monſieur de Bonrepos, the French Ambaſſador, who is lately returned hither from Paris, has had Audience of the States. The Earl of Athlone is come hither from Amerongen, and General Dopf from Maſtricht, and they have ſince been in Conference with the Deputies of the Council of State about changing of the Garriſons of our Frontier Towns, which is appointed to be next Month. It's ſaid, the States intend to disband three Men out of each Company of Foot and each Troop of Dragoons, and to change two Regiments of Foot into Marines. The Count de Friſe is arrived here from Germany, and intends to go in few days for England.

Paris, April 15. N. S. The Envoy of Morocco has had ſeveral Meetings with the Commiſſioners appointed by this Court to treat with him about the Redemption of the French Captives in Barbary, but hitherto there is very little likelihood of their coming to an Agreement. They write from Neuf-Chatel, that all Things continued in the ſame ſtate, and that the Prince of Conti would ſtay there till the return of the Expreſs he lately ſent hither, to give the King an Account of the Declaration the States of that Principality have made concerning his Pretenſions. The Ambaſſador of Savoy has acquainted this Court, that the Rebellion of Mondovi is quite ſuppreſſed. Monſieur Tiquet, a Counſellor of the Parliament of Paris, was ſet upon by ſeveral Perſons two nights ago as he was coming home, and very much wounded, ſo that it's thought he will hardly recover.

Falmouth, April 8. Yeſterday came in here the Joſeph of London, Chriſtopher Marſhall Commander, bound home with Wine from Barcelona. The Spaniſh Expedition Pacquet-boat ſailed this afternoon with a fair Wind for the Groyne.

Plimouth, April 9. Yeſterday came in here the St. George of Diepe, Jacob Frane Maſter, from Nantz, with Wine for Oſtend; the Guſtavus of Stockholme, Hance Santo Maſter, from St. Tubes, and the Succeſs of Briſtol, Wood Rogers Maſter, both bound for Stockholme; which Ships ſailed again this day, as did alſo the Mary of London, John Sheperd Maſter, bound home from Cadiz, and the Reſtauration of London, James Thomas Maſter, from Hull, bound for Rotterdam.

Kenſington, April 11. The King went from hence this day to Newmarket.
